

LMS Parent Workshop – Early College Planning

It is never too early to begin preparing academically and financially for a college education!

The LMS Guidance Department and the Center for College Planning at the NH Higher Education Assistance Foundation will be presenting an Early College Planning Workshop

When: Thursday, December 13, 2018

Time: 6:30pm

Where: LMS Library

Parents will get a head start by attending this evening program which will provide college planning and savings basics necessary to support your child's goals for education beyond high school.

All attendees will also receive the Early College Planning Guide.
